Surrounded by breath-taking bushveld and overlooking a busy waterhole and the peaceful Msuthlu Riverbed, the lodge has welcomed guests for over 35 years, earning an international reputation for outstanding service, luxurious accommodation, and unforgettable safari experiences.

Your elegant Luxury Suite has been thoughtfully designed to provide a luxurious sanctuary after a day in the African bush. Combining contemporary comfort with African-inspired décor, every suite offers the perfect place to relax while immersing yourself in the beauty of nature.

Each day begins with a delicious breakfast before heading out on one of two unforgettable open-vehicle safari experiences. Led by expert guides and trackers, you'll explore the spectacular Sabi Sand Game Reserve in search of the legendary Big Five, as well as countless other fascinating wildlife species that call this remarkable wilderness home.

For an even deeper connection with nature, enjoy an included environmental awareness walking safari, where experienced guides share their knowledge of the bush, from fascinating plants and birdlife to animal tracks and smaller creatures often missed on game drives.

Back at the lodge, spend your afternoons relaxing beside one of the sparkling swimming pools, enjoying the panoramic viewing decks overlooking the riverbed, or simply unwinding with your favourite drink while soaking up the peaceful surroundings.

As evening falls, savour exceptional cuisine with delicious lunches and traditional boma dinners served beneath the African sky before ending another memorable day surrounded by the sounds of the wilderness.
